

TIN MEN (Y) 2 - 1

SHE
Glad you stopped by. What a surprise.

HE
Listen, listen, I have a problem.

SHE
Oh, how can I help?

HE
Well, the problem is you. You're the problem.

SHE
Really. How so?

HE
Well, there are these things that are bothering me.

SHE
Like what?

HE
Well, you know, things.

SHE Things?

HE
Things, you know, stuff, like stuff that comes up, you know, like annoyances.

SHE Annoyances?

It's very hard to explain.

SHE Try.

HE
All right. Now just as an example, last night I came home, I got undressed and I realized that you were sleeping on my side of the bed. Now this is the side of the bed that I always sleep on, you know, I mean I've always done that.

TIN MEN 2 - 2

SHE

Well why didn't you just nudge me a little bit, you know, ask me to go to the other side?

HE

Because I didn't want to wake you up. No, and I thought you'd think it was silly or something.

SHE

You know it's easily changed.

HE

No, but there are other things, you know, bigger things. Oh boy, just talking about this now it sounds so silly.

SHE

You know, if you think all this is going too fast, maybe I should move out. I think that's what you're trying to tell me Bill. I really care for you but, you know, if you think it's best. I don't wanna make you unhappy.

HE

I don't think we have to take any drastic action. I just wanted to get some things off my chest.

SHE

I know that you did.

HE

I guess I just wanted to talk it out.

SHE

Nip it in the bud, yeah.

HE

Like adults. Listen, I'm gonna go catch the last couple of races at Pemco. Wanna come?

SHE

I gotta work.

I know that.
