He

Honey, um, I've been thinking about our whole contraceptive issue, you know, specifically the condoms.

She

Yeah?

He

I'm begging you, please don't make me where them anymore

She

Oh Doug

He

You're a doctor for crying out loud. Jeanie, I think there is something else you can try. Maybe there's a implant, or a patch. Honey isn't there some sort of gum that you can chew? Because I heard that there is some sort of gum that you can chew.

She

Let me get this straight. The ball has been in my court for 15 years and its been in your court for like what, 2 seconds? And you already want to give me the ball back?

He

Yes, yes please. Jeanie, men don't have as many options as women do. There's what we've been doing and then there is what Brad did.

She

What did Brad do?

He

Brad had a vasectomy

She

Brad had a vasectomy?

He

Yeah, and you know that the thought of that...well....Freaks the hell out of me and I don't think I'm ready for that.

She

Wait a minute, what are we talking about here?

He

I don't know. What are we talking about me getting one?

She

I don't know. Do you want to talk about you getting one?

He

I don't know, do you?

She

I don't know

He

Well sweetie, let's think about this. Are we sure we're finish having kids?

She

Well..ummm

He

We always planned on having two kids. We've already got the boy and the girl.

She

The only two models they come in

He

So anything else we get at this point would just be repetitive

She

Wow, did we just decide that we aren't going to have anymore kids?

He

I, well I think we did.

She

You know that doesn't mean you have to get a vasectomy

He

No honey, I understand. But that means we wouldn't have to mess around with the pill, or the condom, ya know? It would mean we could do it wherever we wanted or whenever we wanted to. Jeanie, it would be fantastic.

She

That certainly would be you taken the ball back in your court.

He

Could we please not use the ball analogy anymore

She

Sorry

He

Thanks. (pause) I'm going to do it.

She

Are you sure honey? Why don't you sleep on it.

He

No, no. I think the less I have to think about it, the better off I'll be.
