

INT. HOTEL ROOM - EVENING

TOM is almost finished checking himself in the mirror. The door opens and NICK walks in. He is smiling ear to ear.

NICK
Vegas baby! You ready for this?

TOM
Are you kidding? I was born ready.

NICK
Hells yeah. What strip club do you want to go to first?

TOM
Strip club? I thought we were going to see Carrot Top?

Nick looks confused.

NICK
Excuse me, what?

TOM
I promised Darlene that I wouldn't go to any strip clubs while I was here.

Nick shakes his head.

NICK
Oh hell no. You are here with me, not Darlene. We are in the city of sin, and I plan on doing a lot of sinning if you know what I mean.

Tom looks concerned.

TOM
I don't know Nick. What if she finds out?

NICK
How the hell is she going to do that? She's at home. You are here. What happens in Vegas...

TOM
I know I know, could end up on Facebook.

NICK
What? No... Stays in Vegas.

TOM

That's not what I heard. Darlene told me...

NICK

Look, I don't care what she said. I promise you that we will have a great time. Now go change your shirt. I am going to show you the time of your life.

Tom walks into the other room. While he is gone, Nick takes out a powder and pours a little bit in a shot glass then pours two shots and sets them down. Tom comes back out of the room. Nick holds up the shots.

NICK

Here's to having the time of your life.

Tom is about to take the shot then sets it down.

TOM

I shouldn't be drinking. You know what happened the last time I did shots. I had to buy that guy a new hat.

NICK

One shot isn't going to kill you. Come on, drink up.

Tom reluctantly takes the shot with Nick. They both grimace after the shot.

NICK

Smooth... Alright, let me use the head real quick, then we can get out of here.

Nick walks into the back room. Tom starts looking around the room. He slowly starts to feel the effects.

TOM

Hey what kind of shot was that?

NICK (O.S.)

Just call it happy juice. I made it especially for the trip.

Tom starts looking at his hands. He gets a grin on his face. He makes his hands shake in front of him.

TOM

Did you know that if you move your hands real quick you can see through them? It's like it's not even there.

NICK (O.S.)

What are you talking about?

Tom gets real serious and starts examining the walls. Nick walks out of the rest room. Tom is against the wall looking real close.

TOM

I wonder how much DNA is on here.

NICK

What?

Tom turns and sees Nick. He walks over to him and starts playing with his lips.

TOM

You have really pretty lips. I bet you are a good kisser.

Nick looks at him.

NICK

Are you alright?

Tom thinks about it.

TOM

Yeah, I feel great. You ready for boobies?

NICK

Hell yeah, let's go.

Tom walks through the wrong door towards the bathroom.

NICK

Tom man, the door is this way.

Tom comes back out. He looks at Nick and starts laughing.

TOM

Why are you wearing a dress?

Nick looks down. Then reaches into his pocket and pulls out the powder. He opens the bag and smells it.

NICK

Oh shit.

He takes Tom and puts him down on the couch. He runs in the other room to get some water. While he is gone, Tom gets up and walks out the door. Nick comes back in with a glass of water to find the room empty.

NICK

(on his way in the room)

Dude, I accidentally dosed you with acid. I...

He looks around the room.

NICK

Tom?

He runs out the door as we...

FADE TO BLACK.
