

MACAVOY

I never come down here. It's beautiful. Look at that.

ROBERTSON

Shunning the light

MACAVOY

So it seems

ROBERTSON

You got something for me

MACAVOY

Coroner's report. You got to give it back... You're not going to like it anyway

ROBERTSON

Heart attack! Natural Cause's?

MACAVOY

There's evidence of some previous injuries: broken ribs, a lung problem. Old stuff, though, all healed. Gives you an idea how thorough the coroner was

ROBERTSON

(reading) Time of death? Place? No mention of who was with him?

MACAVOY

Nah. He just worked on the stiff. What can you do, eh?

ROBERTSON

He didn't have a heart attack

MACAVOY

You want to go public with this? Rouse the masses?

ROBERTSON

Life is short. She's abandoning her claim

MACAVOY

Come again?

ROBERTSON

She's leaving. She's going back to Afghanistan

MACAVOY

No she's not. That's a promise. This thing has barely begun.

ROBERTSON

She is going to get away with it.

MACAVOY

We haven't gone through all the leads yet. It all stinks. It's a murder case for chissakes. Four bodies Truck driver on the run - that there should keep her here, not to mention a couple of Arabs in the middle of it.

ROBERTSON

The thing is, is that here security check claim of clean.

MACAVOY

Of course it's clean. These are all phony names. Phony ID. The security chick is clean because these people don't exist anywhere

Phone rings

MACAVOY

Hold on a sec.....Hello....Yeah.....When?Okay we are on our way.

ROBERTSON

What?

MACAVOY

She's not going anywhere. One of the bodies, her husband....a terrorist. There were messages sewn to his clothing

ROBERTSON

What messages?

MACAVOY

They are being translated. Bona fides to whoever it is they were supposed to meet.

ROBERTSON

Finally a break.
