

MANHATTAN 3 - 1 (YC)

HE

You know we have to stop seeing each other,
don't you?

SHE

Oh, yeah, right.... right. I understand. I could tell by the sound of your voice over the phone. Very authoritative, you know...
like the Pope or the computer in "Two Thousand and One".

HE

Look, it's not fair to you and I don't know what the hell I'm doing.

SHE

Right. Right.

HE

I mean, come on, don't be angry. I mean, you brought this up to begin with. You're not happy the way things have been going.

SHE

I'm not angry. I'm just - it's just that I knew it was going to end this way. But now that it's happened, I'm upset, okay?

HE

Oh, look, you don't wanna make a commitment.
And I don't wanna break up my marriage and then find out that - that we're no good together.

SHE

Okay, you made your point. It's very clear.
I'm - I'm just glad that one of us, uh, had the nerve to end it.

HE

Will you be all right?

MANHATTAN 3 - 2

SHE

Yeah. Of course I'm gonna be all right. What do you think I'm gonna do, hang myself? I'm a beautiful woman, I'm - I'm young, I'm highly intelligent, I got everything going for me. The point... the point is - is that, uh, I don't know. I'm all fucked-up. I'm just.... shit. The point is: what the hell am I doing in this relationship anyway? My phone never stops ringing. I could go to bed with the entire faculty of M.I.T. if I wanted to. It's just... I don't know, I'm wasting myself on a married man. So I don't ... Listen, I think I'd better go now. I just want you to have this. I got these tickets to see Rampal tonight. Here...

HE

Oh, Mary.

SHE

You take them.

HE

Listen, this is very hard on me too, you know.

SHE

Please, why don't you just take them and go with your wife?

HE

Mary, come on, you love Rampal. I mean, call somebody up. Take Isaac.

SHE

Fuck off, Yale!
