Clive's worried about getting another gig. I mean, he still has three or four fans out on the lawn now and then, but it's not like it was in the old days.

Kate

I know, but thank God. Remember when you had to crash with me 'cause you couldn't even get into your own house?

Laura

I used to get sent such good scripts back then. I mean it's so hard trying to get back into the business now 'cause all they offer me is boring mom parts. And I'm not even a mom. You know? And that opens that wound up even deeper. I just feel like I gave my career up to follow Clive on the road. Now I can't get pregnant.

Kate

You used to get pregnant when a guy would just feel you up..all the time.

Laura

Yeah, well in my twenties maybe, but you hit thirtyfive and your cervix collapses like a dead star.

Kate

That's not true. Woman get pregnant in their fourties all the time...you just get a shot. You just need to relax, you know. You need to open it, open it all up.

Oh please...

LAURA

Kate

No really. I've been seeing this really great bodywork guy. At first I was uncomfortable you know, having a strange guy's hands all over my body. But it's all about letting go. He says he can read my body with his hands. He says my chakras are offline..or something like that. He also says I have some trust issues. He unblocks all your energy. My vaginal energy...blocked!

Laura

God, what about your date with Burt?

Kate

It's tonight. I don't know what to wear. It's been so long since I was out on a date. Do you really think he'll like me? Oh God, and the housekeeper quit, my house is a mess, I can't even deal with it.

Laura

Relax, he'll love you. God, I would love it if you gave this girl I know a job. She'd be perfect for you. She's crazy great..she's great. She used to sleep out on our porch and I used to feel so sorry for her. She was so obsessed with Clive. You know? She stole my diaphragm so she could put it inside her so it was something that Clive had fucked.

Kate

That is sick, Laura.

Laura

No, I mean, I understand... I may have done the same thing for David Bowie.

Kate

No no no, no way, I'm gonna get myself a nice gay man housekeeper...done.

Laura

Call her. What have you got to lose? You could have your house cleaned while you get ready for your big date.

Kate

Alright, I will. I'll call you later and let you know how it went with Burt... if I come home tonight.

Laura

Hey, Kate...remember...open it up!
